THE GARDEN OF ASIA. By REGINALD FARRER. Crown 8vo, 6s.

This is an attempt to render in words the peculiar fascination of modern Japan, by one who has fully felt it through a year's diligent and indistracted idleness in Tokyo and other places little trodden. This book eschews all statistics, forecasts, points of view. It is not a catalogue of facts, but a study of charms. A series of gleaned impressions is here offered in an honest effort to present the real Japan, and to do for its beauty, in words, a little of what Mr. Menpes has done in colour.
